All Day Every Day Webcast Coverage

The Horse Show committee is pleased to announce that plans are in place to once again offer “all day every day” coverage of the 2009 UPHA American Royal National Championship Horse Show. Viewers from around the country will be able to log on and watch the horse show beginning with the Tuesday morning session and continuing through to Saturday evening.

Expanded coverage will mean that all phases of the exciting Equitation Championships – the UPHA Senior Challenge Cup, the UPHA Junior Challenge Cup, the UPHA 10 & Under Walk/Trot Challenge Cup, and the USEF Saddle Seat Medal Finals – will be broadcast, in addition to the UPHA Classic Grand Championships on Thursday night and the National Championship classes of Friday and Saturday nights.

Interested viewers will be able to pay a nominal daily fee and log-on to view at www.americanroyal.com or they can receive an even better rate by paying to view the entire week. Charges are kept to a minimum and funds raised go toward off-setting the costs of webcast production. Advertisers and exhibitors who have a page in the horse show program will also be offered a web presence: photos and ads from the program will run on the webcast slide show between classes.
