

Robin Peppe Sterneck President | STERNECK CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

Robin P. Sterneck is a seasoned executive and board director who brings 30 years of business and leadership experience to her keynotes, workshops, roundtables, best practice coaching sessions, corporate training and real life story telling.

Robin's work as a Senior Investment Banker at Lehman Brothers and then as a $1B P&L Leader, Global Marketing Director and Head of Talent Development at GE Capital's Insurance business and then Swiss Re, arm her with a broad breadth of first-hand experience and strategies. Her tools and skills remain relevant today as a result of having founded her own firm, Highland Birch Group, a leadership consulting firm, and from serving as President of a successful family owned wealth management business.

Robin also currently serves as an independent director and Compensation and Human Capital Chairperson for the board of EPR Properties ("EPR") and as a Director for the Alterra Bank board (a division of Financial Business ("FBIZ")). She is a founding member of the Kansas City Chapter of Women Corporate Directors, a Director on the National Association of Corporate Directors ("NACD") Heartland Chapter Board and an NACD Fellow. She is a member, speaker and program facilitator at the Central Exchange, a leading professional women's organization.

Robin's ongoing work with more than 50 companies and not-for-profit organizations enables her to simultaneously share time-tested and fresh perspectives to emerging and seasoned leaders in both high performing and transitional organizational cultures. As a business president, co-founder of two major international women's networks, a global talent developer and a mentor to scores of professionals, she uniquely brings macro- and micro-perspectives for advancing tomorrow's leaders.

Robin's current and recent community leadership roles include the Pembroke Hill School Board, Fund Raising and Leadership Development Vice Chair roles for the J Community Center, Board and Audit Committee member for the Greater Kansas City Community Foundation and Chair of WIN for KC, a division of the KC Sports Commission. Keeping up with the active lives of four children and working out keeps Robin happy and busy the rest of her waking hours.

INNOVATE YOU

Keynote

