All rules of the American Royal apply
Rules

1. All rules of the Junior Breeding Division apply.

2. Any heifer not bearing a legible tattoo is ineligible to show and tattoo must match registration papers. This tattoo must be listed on the entry form.

3. Heifers must be registered solely in the junior exhibitor’s name on or before September 12th, 2017. Animals registered in the family name or two or more juniors’ names are not eligible to show in the junior show. This applies even if an animal is registered in a farm or ranch name and the junior member is the only person listed on that membership. Bred and owned animals must be owned solely by the junior exhibitor on or before September 12th, 2017.

4. Heifers will show by age in the classes listed below.

5. Show management reserves the right to break large classes if deemed necessary, in which case the monies may be split.

Age Requirement:
The Maine-Anjou and Mainetainer junior heifer show will follow the Junior Maine-Anjou Association age requirements. “Must be a member of qualifying age – cannot have reached their 22nd (twenty-two) birthday prior to January 1 of current year.” Exhibitors will be required to lead their own heifer with no assistance regardless of age from Ring Stewards, Maine-Anjou Association Members, American Royal Staff, other exhibitors, parents, and anyone else. Special arrangements can be made beforehand for exhibitors that may need assistance while in the show ring.

ANIMALS RECORDED IN MORE THAN ONE BREED REGISTRY MAY ONLY SHOW IN ONE BREED SHOW. ANIMALS MUST SHOW IN THE SAME BREED IN THE OPEN AND JUNIOR SHOW, IF ELIGIBLE.

Class numbers may change following check-in.

The Grand Champion Mainetainer Heifer and the Grand Champion Maine-Anjou Heifer qualify and are expected to compete for the Supreme Champion Junior Breeding Heifer of the 2017 American Royal Livestock Show on Sunday, October 29th, 2017 at noon. The Supreme Champion will receive a $5,000 scholarship and the remaining breed champions exhibited will each receive a $500 scholarship.

Scholarships are presented only for advanced educational purposes of the winners. The sums assigned annually as scholarships will be maintained by the American Royal until such time as the recipients have enrolled and demonstrate that said recipients have enrolled and demonstrate that said funds will be directed to scholarship purposes. These scholarships are non-transferable. The funds shall be paid directly to the college or institution of advanced learning and/or training as approved by the Executive Committee of the American Royal.

The American Royal will keep a $75 per head entry fee and the balance will be remitted to the American Maine-Anjou Association to be used for premiums. The American Maine-Anjou Association’s portion of the premiums is paid to the American Royal to be included in their premium checks to the exhibitors.

Rules
1. Exhibitors are subject to all rules and regulations of the American Maine-Anjou Association. When entry is made, exhibitors agree to abide with the rules and regulations established by the AMAA as well as the rules of the show management. Entries found to be misrepresented, or persons not abiding by the show rules may be disqualified from showing.

2. All animals must be registered in the AMAA or CMAA and the original certificate presented at check-in.

3. Tattoos will be checked, must be legible, and correspond exactly with the registration certificate. Other than a brucellosis calf hood tattoo, there shall be no permanent identification marks other than those noted on the certificate of registry.
4. The attempted surgical or non-surgical alteration or conformation of an animal is prohibited, except for dehorning. Cattle are to be shown in their natural conformation.

5. The use of false tailheads or adding hair or other material to any part of the animal’s body is prohibited.

6. The dyeing or artificial changing of the existing color pattern and color will be prohibited.

7. All animals over 7 months of age must be dehorned.

8. Any and all cattle shall be made available to have blood drawn for parentage verification, detection of foreign substances or the presence of altering. If recorded parent is excluded as a results of blood typing, the owner may at his expense, request the AMAA to determine the actual parent. Failure to determine parentage will result in disqualification of that animal from the AMAA Herdbook.

9. Bulls 10 months of age and older must be shown with a bull lead in place.

10. Heifers exhibited at 20 months of age or older must be accompanied by a certificate of pregnancy. For heifers used in embryo transfer, a certificate of positive fertility issued by a licensed veterinarian must be available for inspection.

11. Bulls exhibited at 14 months of age or older must have had a positive semen test and a certificate to that effect must be available for inspection.

12. Exhibitors shall wear show harnesses to exhibit entry numbers and performance data cards for all AMAA sponsored shows.

13. No acritical filling allowed.

14. Protests must be submitted in writing at least 24 hours prior to the beginning of judging or at the conclusion of judging. Written protests are accompanied by $150 refundable fee and three (3) signatures of current AMAA members. Judging procedures will not be interrupted for protest investigation and, depending on the basis of the protest a decision may be withheld until a complete investigation is made. All protests must also adhere to the American Royal protest rules found under Rules & Regulations in the American Royal premium book information.

Show management reserves the right to break large classes, if deemed necessary, in which case the monies may be split.

Animals recorded in more than one breed registry may only show in one breed show. Animals must show in the same breed in the open and junior show, if eligible.

Mainetainer & Maine-Anjou Bull Shows
Mainetainer bulls must be registered ⅛ through ⅜ Maine-Anjou. Maine-Anjou bulls must be 75% Maine-Anjou or greater.

The individual classes will be divided after the bulls are checked in. The bull classes will consist of bulls born January 1, 2015 through June 1, 2017. There will be a maximum of 6 Mainetainer bull classes (class #’s 1-6) and a maximum of 6 Maine-Anjou bull classes (class #’s 7-12). Classes will be split into a maximum of three division- Calf Champion, Junior Champion, and Senior Champion.

Premiums will be paid in each class as follows:
