

Judy Favor, Ph.D.

Adult Learning & Leadership | KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY - OLATHE
President & Performance Coach | IN THE ZONE TRAINING, INC.

Dr. Judy Favor compiled a 336-188 record, developed 28 All-Region and 7 All-American athletes, and led her teams to 5 consecutive NCAA tournaments as head softball coach at Columbus State University and Wichita State University. After 12 years in college coaching, she retired to pursue a doctorate, determined to learn more about what she viewed as the most difficult aspect of coaching - effectively managing individual personalities and team chemistry. With a personal understanding of elite-level athletic coaching combined with academic expertise in leadership, team dynamics, personality, and human development, this accomplished and dynamic educator brings a unique perspective and practical approach to her work with leaders and teams.

At Kansas State University in Olathe, she is a member of the Adult Learning and Leadership faculty, serves as co-program coordinator of the Leadership Dynamics graduate certificate, and teaches graduate courses in team dynamics, adult learning and motivation, and interpersonal and intrapersonal communication. As a performance coach and president of In the ZONE Training, she helps individuals, teams, and leaders reach their potential.
