

Jara Settles General Counsel | LIVESTOCK MARKETING ASSOCIATION

Jara grew up on a purebred cattle operation in Hoskins, Nebraska. Prior to attending Washburn University School of Law, she received an associate's degree in agricultural business from Butler Community College and a bachelor of science in agriculture from Kansas State University.

Before joining the Livestock Marketing Association as General Counsel, Jara was a civil litigator at the Kansas City office of Shook, Hardy, & Bacon LLP in the pharmaceutical product liability space and devoted a large portion of her practice to regulatory and compliance counseling of food and beverage companies.

Currently, Jara remains active with her family's cow herd, enjoys judging livestock shows across the country, and spends her free time raising club lambs in Leavenworth, Kansas.
