

Gordon Lansford President & CEO | JE DUNN CONSTRUCTION

Gordon Lansford was named President and Chief Executive Officer of JE Dunn Construction Company on January 1, 2014. He is the first non-Dunn family CEO in the 95-year history of the company. As President and CEO, Gordon oversees the operations of five regions and 23 offices as well as the corporate staff. Specific responsibilities include strategy, talent development, client service, operational excellence, a winning culture, and innovation. Gordon maintains key relationships with clients, civic and political leaders, banks, sureties, trade partners and other key stakeholders. Prior to this role, Lansford served as Chief Financial Officer for 15 years.

Lansford graduated from Baker University Summa Cum Laude in 1993 with a degree in accounting and business. He is a Certified Public Accountant and previously worked at KPMG before joining JE Dunn. He is active in many community organizations and currently holds the following offices: the American Royal Board of Directors and Treasurer, Baker University Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Greater KC Community Foundation Board of Directors, Kansas City Chamber of Commerce Chairman of the Board, MRIGlobal Trustee, National World War I Museum and Memorial Trustee, UMB Board of Directors, The Civic Council of Kansas City Board of Directors and Executive Committee, and United Way of Greater KC Executive Cabinet Member.

Gordon and his wife, Marti, have 3 children: Jake, age 21, Brooke, age 19 and Luke, age 16.

Panelist

