I have read the information provided, and I understand all of the eligibility requirements of the Royal Scholars program. If I am chosen as a member of the Royal Scholars program, I understand I will travel to and stay in Kansas City.

I also understand that payment of the scholarship money that I will be awarded if I am selected as a member of the Royal Scholars is contingent on my attendance in Kansas City upon my reasonable proof that I have satisfied the eligibility requirements.

I also understand I will make various appearances at the American Royal and at numerous other scheduled events while in Kansas City, all of which are intended to provide me an opportunity to advocate agriculture, leadership and the American Royal.

I agree to allow the American Royal to use my name, photograph, likeness, information I disclose during the Royal Scholars application process and remarks I may make throughout the course of my involvement with the American Royal for any purpose the American Royal, its officers, agents, employees, successors, assigns, directors and volunteers reasonably deem consist with the purposes of the American Royal. I further agree to hold harmless the American Royal, its agents, officers, employees, successors, assigns, directors and volunteers for such use.
