2022 Changes & Reminders

Market Exhibitors (Steers, Lambs, Goats, Barrows)

- All market exhibitors are required to complete a Quality Assurance program. Examples include: Youth for the Quality Care of Animals, Quality Counts, Beef Quality Assurance, Pork Quality Assurance, or other programs approved by the American Royal. The program name and certificate number will be required on all market entry forms. Exhibitors failing to submit this information will have entries returned as incomplete and will be charged the $10 re-processing fee.

Exhibitor Age Requirements

- All junior exhibitors showing a market animal, crossbred gilt, wether dam, or breeding doe must be no younger than 7 years old and no older than 21 years old as of January 1st, 2022.
- Junior breeding heifer and purebred breeding gilt exhibitors will follow their respective junior breed association age requirements.

Steers

- Federal 840 ID tags are the official identification for steers. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Swine

- Federal 840 ID tags will be used as the official identification for swine. Ear notches will only be utilized as a secondary form of identification.

Market Lambs

- The junior market lamb show is open to wethers only.

Market Goats

- The junior market goat show is open to wethers only.

Arrival Deadlines

- Please pay special attention to the arrival deadlines, as we will not be making exceptions outside of these times

2022 Changes & Reminders Continued

Junior Premium Livestock Auction

- The top 10 market lambs and top ten market goats must sell in the Junior Premium Livestock Auction. Please see more detailed information under each species.
- All market animal exhibitors that qualify for the Junior Premium Livestock Auction will be required to complete an Animal Husbandry Form, which can be found at www.americanroyal.com. All medications, vaccinations, injections, medical treatments and any foreign substances administered, in any form or manner, from the ownership deadline (August 15, 2022) through Junior Premium Livestock Auction must be recorded. The American Royal strongly advises all exhibitors to maintain this form from time of ownership and bring with them to the American Royal to ensure accuracy in record keeping.
- The Junior Premium Livestock Auction is a terminal auction.
