About

The purpose of the American Royal Youth Rodeo Self-Marketing Contest is to encourage Youth Contestants to learn social media management, self-representation, and interpersonal communication skills. These skills can assist them with obtaining sponsorships, creating a brand for themselves, and set them up for careers in marketing and communications. This contest also provides participants the opportunity to promote youth rodeo and educate the public.

Rules

1. Contestants must be a Youth Contestant of the Youth Rodeo, i.e. contestants must, or will, have competed in the American Royal Youth Rodeo Event from April 24, 2024-April 26, 2024, to be eligible. No outside entries will be accepted. Age divisions are listed below.
2. No contestant will be eligible to compete in any contest at the American Royal if they have any sanctions or disciplinary action taken against them by the North American Livestock Show & Rodeo Managers Association, The International Association of Fairs and Expositions, 4-H, FFA, and/or breed association(s).
3. The contest coordinator and the management of the American Royal reserve the right to rule on any question of eligibility not covered in the preceding rules.
4. All work must be that of the entrant.
5. Contestants must enter online using the registration link provided by the American Royal Association by 11:59 PM CST on April 10, 2024. Contestants will provide their social media handles in the registration form and their social media accounts must be public.
